The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, May 5. 1719.

London, May 5.

Yesterday arrived the Mail from Holland of Friday last.

From the Amst. Courant, dated May 13.

Cadiz, April 17.

YEsterday came into this Bay the Dorothy, one of the Transports of our Fleet, very much damaged; the greatest Part of her Crew died of Thirst: To Day came in the Cambio, the Admiral-Ship, which has lost all her Masts.

From the Hague Courant, dated May 12.

Naples, April 18. Our Viceroy has received Advice by an Express from Sicily, that the two Armies continue in their Intrenchments near Melazzo, but that the Spaniards are still sending the greatest Part of their Artillery and heavy Baggage towards Messina, with the Design soon to decamp, they being in great Want of Ammunition and Money; Two British Ships have taken in the Height of Palermo a Spanish Frigate going to Messina with ready Money; and made all the Crew Prisoners. General Zumjungen keeps some Batallions in Readiness to annoy the Enemy in their designed Retreat. General Count Mercy is expected here in a Week's Time. Admiral Byng has had for some time past several Conferences with the Viceroy, and the Marquis de Broglio Minister of the King of Sardinia, in which all the Differences between the Courts of Vienna and Turin were adjusted; it is agreed, that Syracusa and all other Places in Sicily garrisoned by the Piemonteze, shall be delivered into the Possession of the Imperialists; that in such Places where the Garrison consists of Imperialists and Piemonteze Troops, the Imperial Officer is to have the chief Command; and that till such Time as the Imperial Troops can be transported, and Governours sent on the Part of the Emperour, the Piemontese Officers shall command in the Emperour's Name.

Rome April 22. Our Court having confirmed the two Briefs relating to the levying the Tenth Penny and the Crusada in Spain, it is expected the Differences with that Crown will soon be adjusted; some even believe, the Pope is resolv'd the better to forward that Accommodation, to deliver in the next Consistory the disputed Bull about the Archbishoprick of Sevil, in Behalf of Cardinal Alberoni. Cardinal Acquaviva has delivered to the sacred College a Manifesto, containing the Reasons why the Court of Madrid cannot accept the Terms of Peace offered by Great Britain and France; that Cardinal went afterwards to Albano. The Duke of Parma having obtained from the Pope a Brief, empowering him to levy the Tenth Penny on the Clergy, to indemnify him from the quartering of the Imperial Troops, the Duke of Modena makes the like Demand. On the 19th Instant, several Sicilian Clergymen, who are returning to their Churches, were admitted to kiss the Pope's Foot. General Count Mercy being arrived here from Vienna, was on the 20th Instant magnificently entertained by Count Gallas; he is since set out for Naples, to take upon him the Command of the Imperial Army in Sicily. A Regiment of Hussars is arrived in the District of Bolonia, marching to Naples; from whence the Duke of Cerenza Pinelli is come hither, sent, as it is said, by the Viceroy with 24000 Ducats for the Apostolick Chamber, on Account of what has been laid out in Behalf of the Imperial Troops on their March through the Ecclesiastical State.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated May 12.

Genoa, April 26. We learn from Sicily, that the heavy Artillery which the Marquis de Lede caused to be removed out of the Intrenchments before Melazzo, has been carried partly to Messina and partly to Palermo, to put those Places in a Condition of Defence against the Imperialists, who are preparing a great Convoy for transporting all the German Troops from the Kingdom of Naples into Sicily towards the End of this Month. Several Transports that have been hired here and at Leghorn to that purpose, are sailed for Naples. We hear from Leghorn, that the Lords Mar and Perth embarked on the 19th Instant at Viareggio on board a Felucca for Spain to join the Pretender.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 12.

Vienna, April 29. Their Imperial Majesties went on the 27th to Laxemburg, to reside there during the Spring and Part of the Summer; the Ministers and the Chancery have begun to follow thither. The Empress, it is said, intends to go shortly to Baden, to use the Bath there. The Empress Mother set out for that Place Yesterday, with the Archdutchesses her Daughters. Count Virmond has received his Instructions, and is to enter upon his Journey for Constantinople on the 2d of May. There is a Report that Count Althan is to be created a Prince of the Empire, and that the Emperour is to grant to him the County of Gradiska.

From the Amst. Courant, dated May 11.

Stockholm, April 22. M. Rumpf and M. de Bie, Ministers of the States General, are reclaiming the Dutch Ships that were seized since the Death of the late King, in which Affair they expect good Success; but about the Ships that were taken before, nothing can be said as yet. Those Ministers insist very much that the Freedom of Commerce be re-established, which Affair, and the calling in of the Mint-Tokens, are the Subject the Council are at present deliberating upon. It is hoped here, we shall have a General Peace in the North, and it appears that this Court is very much inclined towards it.

From the Harlem Courant, dated May 13.

Copenhagen, May 6. Last Evening arrived here five of the Prizes taken by Rear Admiral Tordenschiold, who lies with his Squadron near Elsburg, expecting some Vessels from Vice-Admiral Rosenpalm, and a Transport from the Army in Norway, to bombard Gottenbourg, which Harbour he has so closely blocked up that nothing can go in or come out. This Morning an Officer was sent from hence with 26 Swedish Prisoners for Landscron, who are to be exchanged against so many of our Men that are Prisoners there.

From the Amst. Courant, dated May 13.

Hambourg, May 9. Letters from Stockholm of the 24th past say, that the Solemnity of paying Homage to the Queen was performed there on the 22d, after her Majesty had first herself by a Solemn Oath renounced and disclaimed absolute and uncontrolable Power. M. Rumpf and M. de Bie, Ministers of the States General of the United Provinces, the Danish Major General Lewenohr, and Collonel Baffewitz, assisted as Spectators at this publick Ceremony. Chancellour Muller is dead at Stockholm after 14 Days Sickness. The Senator Count Horn demanded his Dismission two Days before the above-said Solemnity, and obtained it. M. le Fort is arrived at Stockholm on the part of the Czar of Muscovy, to compliment the Queen on her Accession to the Crown.

From the Hague Courant, dated May 12.

From the Amst. Courant, dated May 13.
